

PERSONS NAMES.	Annual SUMS.	Time when the Charges were made.	By what Warrant or Authority.
ROBERT, MARY, ANNE, and ELIZ. BURROWES, Children of said Robt Burrowes - - - - -	£. s. d. 40 — —		WILLIAM RANDAL, Esq. Chancellor of the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
ANNE BRENNAN, Widow of Charles Brennan, who lost his Life in pursuit of Rebels with Justice Godfrey - - -	20 — —		SIR NICHOLAS FORSTER, Esq. As Under King of Arms, for the Appointment in the late Parliament of the House of Commons.
ANNE BOWEN, Widow of Francis Bowen, late Quartermaster in the 7th Dragoons, who died on Duty against the Rebels - - - - -	10 — —		SIR WILLIAM LLOYD, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
GRACE CONSTABLE, Widow of John Constable, of the North Naas Cavalry, who was wounded by the Rebels going with Dispatches to General Wilford, and died in consequence -	20 — —		CHARLES BOWEN, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
JANE CUMMING, Widow of — Cumming, a Yeoman in the County Down, who was killed - - - - -	30 — —		WALTER FRY, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
ELIZABETH CRAWFORD, Widow of — Crawford, of the 5th Regiment of Dragoons, who was murdered - -	15 — —		WILLIAM BULLER, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
— COLTHURST, Widow of Wm. Colthurst, Esq. Surveyor of Cove, a Member of Lord Boyle's Cavalry, who lost his Life on Duty against the Rebels - - - - -	30 — —		GEORGE LINDSAY, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
ANNE CLOWRY, Widow of Darby Clowry, of the County of Carlow, who was murdered by the Rebels - - -	10 — —		THOMAS HENDY, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
MARGARET CUTHBERT, Widow of Patrick Cuthbert, of the Gowran Cavalry, who was killed on Duty -	20 — —		JOSEPH VERON, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
MARY DALTON, Widow of David Dalton, Esq. of Enniscorthy, who was murdered at Wexford Bridge - - -	30 — —		THOMAS GRADY, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
ANNE DILLON, Widow of Captain Dillon, of the County Dublin Militia, who was killed at Rofs - - - - -	30 — —		JOSEPH GRANT, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
MARGARET EVATT, Widow of Lieut. Evatt, of the Monaghan Militia, who was killed - - - - -	25 — —		JOHN MORTON, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
MARIA EWING, Widow of Captain Ewing, of the Marines, who was murdered by the Rebels - - - - -	20 — —		SIR WILLIAM LLOYD, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
ANNE FERGUSON, Widow of Wm. Ferguson, of the Attornies Corps, who lost his Life on Duty - - - - -	20 — —		SIR WILLIAM LLOYD, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
HARRIET and DELIA FERGUSON, Daughters of the said Wm. Ferguson -	30 — —		SIR WILLIAM LLOYD, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
ANNE GERRARD, Widow of William Gerrard, of the County of Meath -	30 — —		SIR WILLIAM LLOYD, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
PONSONBY TOTTENHAM, Esq. in Trust for Eleanor, Abigail, Letitia, and Elizabeth Giffard, Daughters of Milward Giffard, an Officer in the Revenue, who was murdered at Saillabogue -	30 — —		SIR WILLIAM LLOYD, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
SUSANNA GIFFARD, Widow of Clement Giffard, Gauger at Rofs, who was murdered - - - - -	30 — —		SIR WILLIAM LLOYD, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
MARY HAMILTON, Widow of Robert Hamilton, Esq. Portreeve of Navan, who lost his Life in apprehending Rebels - - - - -	20 — —		SIR WILLIAM LLOYD, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
CATHERINE HAMILTON, Widow of John Hamilton, who was killed -	10 — —		SIR WILLIAM LLOYD, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.
ANNE HARDY, Widow of Thomas Hardy, Esq. who was killed at the Battle of Hacketstown - - - - -	20 — —		SIR WILLIAM LLOYD, Esq. Secretary to the High Court of Chancery in England, for his Fee on Advocating this Cause through the Irish Courts.